

About Us

Come Home to Deer Creek Village

Boasting unparalleled views and the opportunity to invest in one of the healthiest economies in Western Colorado, Deer Creek Village is a unique golf course community located in the burgeoning town of Cedaredge. With instant access to a wide range outdoor activities and cultural events, Deer Creek Village is an undiscovered gem in the desirable world of golf course living.

Deer Creek Village is owned and managed by two brothers who were born in Western Colorado and respect the beauty of both the property and the entire region. Placing the greatest emphasis on protecting open space, views and wildlife for future generations, the Deer Creek Village golf course real estate development is a crucial piece of the push for sustainable growth in Western Colorado.

Deer Creek Village Facts:

- Named Deer Creek for the native mule deer who wander the golf course

- 3 distinct neighborhoods: Stonebridge, Stonecrest & Stonegate

- Lots range from 1/3 to 1/2 acre

- 360 degree views of Grand Mesa, San Juan Mountains, The Uncompahgre Mountains and the West Elk Mountain Range.

- Lot prices from $69,000 to $170,000

- Owned & Managed by experienced developers intimately familiar with Western Colorado

Click Here to join our interest list or keep reading for more information about Deer Creek Village real estate, living in Western Colorado and more.